Film Description: With an all-star cast, this touching film documents the extraordinary fight of Jake, a prisoner with a shaved head and 100% burns, to regain his dignity and human rights. At a Catholic university in Michigan, Jake has become disabled after falling into an oven-like enclosure used by the school's medical personnel to "pulverize" or "resurrect" dead bodies. Shot on location by acclaimed director, Paul Haggis, Burning Bedendom tells the story of the true heroes who champion Jake's struggle and the challenges of rehabilitation and acceptance he faces. These include a scarred social worker who has come to understand what Jake has experienced; the nemesis of medical murder; a Christian minister who has internalized Jake's survival; and most of all, his loving mother, who asserts, "Jake is more than a burn victim. He is the son I always wanted." The Perils of Distraction - brandonj ===== josefresco > Mr. Lucas has traveled to Arizona, where he has rented a $54,000-a-month, > 32,000-square-foot mansion. He has spent about $10 million on a mansion in > a gated community in Malibu, Calif., where he has lived for the past few > years, and he has used a $70,000 investment in a private plane to ferry > him to and from Florida and California. His investment in a pair of Cadillacs > led him to buy a land-development firm with partners. The article is a great read, but I wonder how many of these stories (tim lucas, peter schiff etc) are even related to the companies they sell/invest into.
