I would really like to, but if I don't, I do it for a friend's benefit. As someone in the funeral business, there are a lot of questions which come to my attention which are very important to me, but I would not want to sound like a know it all or over sell the goods to someone who is going to skip the funeral. So I will try to remember to do both, and give my opinions, and I think I will keep this just to myself. Leave comments because I want to know what you think, and people are listening. Friday, April 08, 2011 There are some decisions you can make that would make your life better. You might even think about it, and say...ok, I am going to do this, but you can never be completely sure. As I look at my life, I want to keep those decisions out of the way of my children. I do not want to see them coming. I want to be able to say, and I will say, "You don't need to do that, because you are young." And I want to be able to be the person who helps a teen do what they know they need to do. I remember when I was in high school, I thought, I am not going to lose my virginity. And I mean, why would I? There was no one to keep me from it. The teenage years can be extremely dangerous. The best I can do is say, "This is what I think. It is best to wait. You will
