You need to make a license key file for your software and then click Re-add in the section of the registration on the download page. I'm going to have to disagree. If we're doing a rec league each year, that could mean seven teams. Since there would be no playoffs or champions, then each team would have to win their division and it would be seven year. Now then, maybe it could be argued that there could be a three way split or more for who are the best teams, but for now, we'll say there is no playoff. I'm going to have to disagree.
