Yeovil Town are set to sign a striker from Portsmouth after Hull City and Blackburn Rovers rejected the chance to sign the 28-year-old. Paul Cox was captain of Southampton when he was one of the players out of contract at the end of last season, leaving the club for nothing in July. The forward has joined Pompey and Hull are understood to have agreed a deal to take him back to the club where he began his career. Blackburn have had a bid for the striker turned down, and Yeovil are now in talks with Cox's agent. Cox, who spent the first four years of his career with Portsmouth, signed for Southampton from Blackpool in 2008 and made over 100 appearances in South Coast colours. He has played on loan at Macclesfield, Plymouth Argyle and Wycombe Wanderers. Cox has scored 29 goals for Portsmouth this season and would be a replacement for Alex Revell, who left the club in the summer to join Port Vale. I like to wear. I like the way that the closing of the rings are thick and formed, almost like the rings themselves are shiny. But they are not, they are just slightly darker around the entire edge. And the same goes for the other metals you will have as options for the clasps.

These are very smooth and yet they are not form on. They look like this. And on a very tight and
